Planning - Long and Short Range

Planning, long and short range, will be a primary objective of the Board and its decisions will relate to, or stem directly from, adopted plans.

Public education in Lincoln County must be based on accepted standards, well defined and understood by those implementing and those receiving services, and responsive to the changing population it serves.

The planning process provides for an organized and disciplined use of resources to anticipate needs, to reduce stress, to select the appropriate solution, to implement decisions and to evaluate outcomes.

The district believes that quality education is the product of a continuous effort of long-range planning and recognizes the need and the value of planning to provide an orderly means of identifying, prioritizing, implementing and evaluating services to students and the public.

This school system is people centered and the planning of this district will be based on meaningful involvement of students, staff and the public.

The superintendent or designee will ensure parents and staff are also involved in the planning process.
